is a leading expert in Systema, a form of Russian martial arts. At age sixteen he began training in the Hawaiian street fighting system of Ed Parker's Karate. A year later he began working at the local clubs as a bouncer in a town renowned for its late night street fighting. A profession he continued for the next ten years in clubs from London to the U.S. - Forged from his experiences, twenty years later, after also studying Boxing, Judo, Thai-boxing and Filipino weapons fighting in his desire to find the most effective street fighting system, Martin met Vladimir Vasiliev, the former Russian Special Operative demonstrating Systema at a seminar and knew he had witnessed something strange, unique and absolutely lethal in any environment.
